The Bible Is Inspired

“All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work” (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

“Get back to Jesus.” This sounds like honoring Christ, but it is often-times anything but that. For many, the meaning is actually this: “Don’t trouble about the Bible—it has been proved to be full of legends and myths, and it is unreliable, and you can afford to drop it, and fix your attention on Christ.”

Wait a minute. Didn’t Jesus testify to an inerrant Word of God (John 5:39)? If the Bible is full of mistakes, then we have Christ affirming a lie. In that case we have a fallible Christ who is reduced to the level of a fallible man, leading to the complete undermining of the Christian faith.

In short, if we give up an inerrant Book, we give up a perfect Christ. What do we know of Jesus outside the Bible? A line or two from Josephus, little more than acknowledging His wonderful personality and power, an account of His personal appearance, written by a Roman Governor, and that is about all. Any effort to develop a knowledge of Christ apart from the Bible, is as senseless and foolish as it is ignorant and wicked.

The Bible claims for itself full, complete, and verbal inspiration (2 Tim. 3:16). This is clearly seen when one studies what Scripture has to say about itself (2 Pet. 1:16-21). The Holy Spirit is the author of the Scriptures (2 Pet. 1:21). The origin of Scripture is not found in the will of man, that is, in his attempt to find truth and to interpret truth, but it is found in the Word of the Holy Spirit who reveals truth to man (see John. 16:13; 1 Cor. 2:9-10).

From My Heart To Yours

The Paradoxical Commandments

1. People are illogical, unreasonable, and self-centered. Love them anyway.
2. If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway.
3. If you are successful, you will win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway.
4. The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
5. Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway.
6. The biggest men and women with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest men and women with the smallest minds. Think big anyway.
7. People favor underdogs but follow only top dogs. Fight for a few underdogs anyway.
8. What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway.
9. People really need help but may attack you if you do help them. Help people anyway.
10. Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth. Give the world the best you have anyway. Have a great week ! Doug

May we always get along, love one another, look out for each other, and follow the Will of the Father together.

L2L is more than just attending a youth rally or participating in a Bible Bowl. L2L offers a variety of Bible-based class materials and events for preschoolers through adults. The goal of L2L is to provide effective, year-round leadership training tools while instilling the Word of God into youth and adults to ensure they stand firm in the faith. If you have not been involved in L2L but have just wondered what it’s all about then you are especially invited to KICKOFF!!! SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to the family of Bob Floyd who passed from this life last Wednesday, September 2. Bob “grew up” here at Booneville and was a vital member with us until he and Sherry married in 2006 and he began worshipping and serving at Snowdown. Bob had such a loving and generous heart, he was truly a servant and loved the Lord’s Church. Bob will be greatly missed until that great reunion after-a-while.
